

THE ROMANCE OF HISTORY

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

TORNADO PREPARATIONS

To mark the 50 year anniversary of the 1974 tornado that tore through Stamping Ground the Museum will be installing a whole new exhibit. Alongside the exhibit there will be other co-ordinating events happening in the coming months.

- Tuesday, March 26th - Stamping Ground Elementary Reception
- Wednesday, April 3rd - Museum Exhibit Grand Opening and Documentary Viewing

The Georgetown-Scott County Museum recognizes Black History not just in February but all year round.

We have so many pieces involving Black History such as the history of Ed Davis School, Records of Black Veterans from Scott County and the history of the many Black villages in Scott County.

DOWNTOWN

LOVE OUR DOWNTOWN

The Museum once again participated in the Love Your Downtown event co-ordinated by tourism. February 9th through the 24th visitors were able to come and get their pink passport signed in an effort to encourage townsfolk to support their local businesses!
